

Title IX Notice

The General Brown Central School District does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education program and activities. This nondiscrimination policy applies to both the admission of students and their access to educational programs and activities, and to the employment of staff by the District.

The District is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of sex by Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1975, as well as other state and federal laws. If you have a question about the application of Title IX to the District, you may direct that question to the District's Title IX Coordinator (information below) or to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education, or to both.

The District maintains a grievance procedure to receive reports of conduct that might be sexual harassment, and to receive formal complaints of conduct that might be sexual harassment. When the District receives a report or a formal complaint describing conduct that might be sexual harassment, it will investigate in a timely manner and will make a determination whether the conduct violates the District's policy against sex discrimination, or any other District rules, such as the Code of Conduct. To report conduct that might be sexual harassment, or to make a formal complaint of conduct that might be sexual harassment, you may:

- contact the District's Title IX Coordinator, as described below;
- use the incident reporting form available online with the District's policies; or
- if the person affected by the questionable conduct is a student, use the District's form for reporting bullying or harassment on the District's website.
