

Mrs. Hamilton's News

October 25, 2013

"When the going gets tough try harder and you will succeed."
(Positive Quotes for Kids)

Check your e-mail I have sent a few. Next Week is Red Ribbon Week!

11/1 Short reading test
11/1 Spelling test

Please return your conference request forms as soon as possible. I will honor them as I receive them and based on the number of sibling conferences necessary. They were e-mailed.

Next Week's Academics

Reading- Unit 2 Week 1

Focus: Main Idea and Details, Author's Purpose

Grammar: Nouns

HFW: her, they, our, two

Math: Chapter 3

Addition Strategies

~Problem solving
~Make 10 to Add
~Halloween word problems
~Check My Progress

Vocab.: addends, count on, number line, doubles, doubles plus 1, doubles minus 1

Spelling

Unit 2 Week 1 (10 words)

Pattern: short "o"

Words: hop top log hog

hot lot fast wink

our they

Social Studies: Families

Science: Animals and their habitats

*Starting this week spelling tests will have practice pages attached for any reversals your child might need to work on.

Please send your child's costume with them on Thursday and we will see you in the gym or outside at parade time.

Reminder: If you want to pick your child-up after the parade please send a note and plan to sign them out in the office.

We will be having donuts, juice and cider while we get ready for the parade- PLEASE don't send anything that I have not requested because we won't have time to enjoy it. Thank you!

Practice Ideas

1. Set a timer and see how many words you can read in a minute from the colors you have mastered.
2. Writing the spelling words is the best way to ensure that each letter is written correctly and there are no capitals.

Congratulations to these students who have read all their:

Purple: Tristan

Blue: Tristan, Faith

Green: Annaliese, Faith,

Yellow: Faith, Maura

Orange: Maura, Kaden, Jesse, Emma, Jordan, Addison

Red: All students

All students should master orange or be close by the end of October to be on level.

We contributed 939 Boxtops!
Thank you and keep them coming.
My e-mail is:
dhamilton@gblions.org