

Mrs. Hamilton's News

Jan. 24, 2014

Reminders this month:

- *The book order is due today.
- *End of the marking period January 31.
- February 14th student will have not school teachers will.

*This reading test Mask! Mask! the kids did yesterday I had them do it all on their own. They had to read the story and then read and answer the questions. I wanted to see how well they would do independently. This was not officially graded.

*Encouraging your child to read to you and then asking them questions about what they have read will help them.

FYI: My brother-in-laws military unit has deployed to Afghanistan and my sister has asked if my class could brighten a deployed soldiers day by sending notes and cards them. We have been given permission to do this and will compose notes over the next week and a half. Students will not be putting their last names on anything and the unit is not local they are based out of Fort Campbell, TN.

Please keep practicing rainbow words with your son or daughter. I have been testing students but very few have mastered their next group of words.
